<input type="checkbox"/>	11:00am The Islands and the Whales (Documentary, United Kingdom, Subtitled, 81 min.) In their remote home in the North Atlantic the Faroese Islanders, hunting whales and seabirds kept them alive for generations and gave them the way of life they love; a life they would pass on to their children. But today they face a grave threat to this tradition. <small>Intended for Mature Audiences (contains disturbing images of hunting and killing of animals)</small>	$5.50
<input type="checkbox"/>	1:00pm Longing for a Kiss (Narrative, Germany, Subtitled, 87 min.) Three strong female characters from three generations are all teetering on the edge of a nervous breakdown. One wants to continue controlling the lives of her two daughters. Her eldest is in search of herself, and the youngest has centered all her hopes and dreams on having a baby. <small>Intended for Mature Audiences (includes adult language and situations)</small>	$5.50
<input type="checkbox"/>	3:00pm The Cinema Travellers (Documentary, India, Subtitled, 96 min.) A journey with the traveling cinemas of India, which bring the wonder of the movies to faraway villages annually. Seven decades on, as their lorries and cinema projectors crumble and film reels become scarce, their audiences are lured by slick digital technology. <small>Intended for Mature Audiences (contains brief scenes of nudity and some adult language)</small>	$5.50
<input type="checkbox"/>	6:30pm Opening Night - Short Film Selections, Reception & Night Gallery Collection The festival officially starts with the Opening Night event! The evening begins with a collection of eight (8) short film selections, all in competition for the “Best Short Film” award for the festival. These films are of varying length, style, and themes, and submitted by filmmakers around the world. Afterwards, everyone is invited to an Opening Night Reception in the Hickory Museum of Art next door for food and drink. And for those daring souls that want to see some more interesting, unique, and possibly bizarre short films, the “Night Gallery” collection of late-night short films will be presented after the reception (approximately 9:30pm). The ticket price includes your admission to the entire night of events. <small>NOTE: The early evening short films are intended for ages Teen and older (for brief adult language). The late-night “Night Gallery” shorts are intended for Mature Audiences (contains scenes of violence, adult language, and adult situations).</small>	$16.50
